

HECTOR SAENZ, JR.

Director of Business Operations

Member Construction

Hector Saenz, Jr. leads the company's business operations, with responsibility for business not only in the U.S. but as well in Latin America. Overseeing the company's ongoing expansion efforts into emerging markets.

As the Business Operations Director, he makes sure that all aspects are covered and that company goals are met. Responsible for negotiations to budgeting and purchasing, working closely with upper management in developing long-term operational strategies that help meet company objectives.

Before joining Member Construction, LLC., Saenz, Jr. worked for the Oil and Gas Industry for various fortune 500 Oil Company's, ENI Petroleum, Hess Corporation, Schlumberger, Apache Corporation, and EOG Resources.

Saenz, Jr. holds a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration from UTPA and a Bachelor of Science in Petroleum Engineering from the University of Houston.